He proposed that Mr. Watson and his assistants, and all holding similar positions in the Colony should be exempted 5,000 His Excellency agreed with Mr. Perceval, names of assistants and reporters. Some discussion took place as to the propriety of Chinese acting as jurors, in which his Excellency said that in Singapore they so acted, and performed the duties in a most & Capers.

It was desired that the small coins should be manufactured at home, in consequence of the greater facilities there afforded. If at any future time, however, it should be thought desirable to make the smaller coin at our own mint, it would be unnecessary to make any alteration in the Ordinance to admit of that being done. The scheme is supposed to repay to the Colony the outlay for the ground, the materials, and the whole establishment, to be not only self supporting, but to give an annual profit. Not a large profit however should be looked for, which if found too large would be appropriated to the reduction of the rate at which the business can be done. The Home Mint would receive no profit from our coinage, and it had allowed us that accruing from the coins already sent us from Tower Hill, viz. on the ten cent pieces 100 per cent | brellas, Whips and Canes. Mr. Perceval thought that Kowloon would be very inconvenient, for he remembered times when it had been impossible for boats to cross for three days. His Excellency proposed that a Notice nine feet on Aberdeen Street, comprising a supshould be put in the Gazette calling on parorficial area of about 19000 square feet. Annual Ground Rent £42.12.6. The Bill was read a second time and passed, being entituled "An Ordinance to establish a Mint for the Colony of Hongkong." tf. Hongkong, 24th February, 1864. The Council then adjourned sine die.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR. To the Editor of the" Daily Press." ERAB SIR,-Why was the steamer Formore sent into quarantine a few days ago, after all her Chinese and European passengers had been landed?
Because there was a solitary case of small pox on board! Yet H. M. S. Encounter is permitted to remain at anchor close to the shore, having constant communication with the shore, and having three cases of small pox attended by the Surgeon of the ship, at the Hospital on Green Isld.
